International filing date (day/month/year)
30.10.2003

Priority date (day/month/year)
31.10.2002

Applicant
RANBAXY LABORATORIES LIMITED et al.

1. The applicant is hereby notified that this International Preliminary Examining Authority transmits herewith the international preliminary examination report and its annexes, if any, established on the international application.
2. A copy of the report and its annexes, if any, is being transmitted to the International Bureau for communication to all the elected Offices.
3. Where required by any of the elected Offices, the International Bureau will prepare an English translation of the report (but not of any annexes) and will transmit such translation to those Offices.
4. REMINDER

The applicant must enter the national phase before each elected Office by performing certain acts (filing translations and paying national fees) within 30 months from the priority date (or later in some Offices) (Article 39(1)) (see also the reminder sent by the International Bureau with Form PCT/IB/301).

Where a translation of the international application must be furnished to an elected Office, that translation must contain a translation of any annexes to the international preliminary examination report. It is the applicant's responsibility to prepare and furnish such translation directly to each elected Office concerned.

For further details on the applicable time limits and requirements of the elected Offices, see Volume II of the PCT Applicant's Guide.

The applicant's attention is drawn to Article 33(5), which provides that the criteria of novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability described in Article 33(2) to (4) merely serve the purposes of international preliminary examination and that "any Contracting State may apply additional or different criteria for the purposes of deciding whether, in that State, the claimed inventions is patentable or not" (see also Article 27(5)). Such additional criteria may relate, for example, to exemptions from patentability, requirements for enabling disclosure, clarity and support for the claims.

POINT V.

The following document , quoted in the I.S.R and the description of present application has been considered as relevant for the examination of the present application . Its numbering will be adhered to for the rest of the procedure.

(1) US-A-5 849 752.

Novelty.

In view of the spectral data which are encompassed in present application and which underline the different morphology of the compound on file, the claimed matter can be regarded as novel with respect to the content of (1).

Inventive Step.

However the claimed matter cannot be regarded as inventive because 2 different morphs of the same compound are likely to possess the same pharmacological profile , and , therefore, at the entry into the regional European proceedings , the Applicant will be invited to show preferably by technical evidence , that the claimed amorphous compound on file possess any advantage or surprising feature when it is compared with its crystalline equivalent of (1) in order to enable the acknowledgment of the inventiveness of the application with respect to the content of (1).

For instance , he is invited to provide the data which show that the compound on file possesses a better absorption profile than its crystalline homologue of (1).
